Introduction

Australian NGOs have long-standing relationships with local Solomon Island partners. Currently 16 agencies work with more than 50 local partners. These partnerships enable Australian NGOs to work very effectively on a wide range of activities aimed at poverty reduction.

These activities include:

- Civil society strengthening
- Provision of basic services
- Community engagement in peace and reconciliation

The scope, volume and diversity of Australian NGO experience is demonstrated in this matrix, which provides:

- Each agency's organisational profile, contact details and data on past and current projects
- Data categorised by sector, size, location, partnerships and staffing
- Analysis according to sector and partners (Appendices 1&2).

Australian Foundation for the Peoples of Asia and the Pacific (AFAP)
AFAP is an independent member of the Foundation of the Peoples of the South Pacific International (FSPI) network whose affiliates have been working in the Pacific since 1965. This network is one of the oldest, largest, and most experienced secular NGO network in the Pacific with a mission to 'work with Pacific communities through people centred programs to foster self-reliance within a changing world'. AFAP's affiliate, Solomon Islands Development Trust (SIDT), has built a strong grassroots network of community workers and trainers committed to addressing the social, environmental and economic problems facing the country. SIDT has at least one centre in each of the 10 provinces of Solomon Islands. The centres are directed by field officers who lead between 40-50 trained villagers working in teams as Village Development Workers (VDW).	Village Demonstration/Development Workers (VDW) – Funded by ICCO. Radio and Theatre – funded by NZODA. Eco Forestry – completed in Jan 2001, some personnel transferred to the Restorative Justice Project. A proposal has been submitted to PDCT in New Zealand to continue the program. Butterfly Ranching –funded by Anglican Church of Canada which ended in 2001. A proposal submitted to AusAID for SI$130,000 over three years to continue program.	The Voices and Choices Project. Funded by DFID, NZODA and possibility AusAID. This project seeks to promote good governance and democracy through the establishment of a 'virtual' centre for good governance, which would act as a nexus of dialogue, information exchange and networking. It carries out social mapping to gather data on 'pressure points' and to harness community-level opinions on how a more consensual form of governance can be promoted.		National	SIDT, FSPI, Just World Partners (JWP)	1 Program Officer in Sydney
		Seaweed and coral farming. Provides villages with additional income from sale of dried seaweed and increased fish stock.				1 Program Officer in FSPI Office
		Eco-Forestry. Training the community in how to best generate a sustainable cash flow whilst at the same time protecting their natural resources. This program has ensured that 50 communities have resisted logging royalties.

The heart of SIDT's work with the VDW is to "strengthen the quality of village living" and present a balanced view of development. CONTACT AFAP Uma Menon Christine Carberry 536 Pacific Hwy St Leonards NSW 2065 Email: uma.menon@afap.org Phone: 02 99063762		Butterfly Ranching. Income generation for the community whilst at the same time protecting their environment. Print Media: The SIDT "Link" Newspaper is another outreach tool to ensure that communities have access to all information they need to make decisions within their communities.
		Village Development Workers. SIDT through the VDW continue to help change natural wealth to cash; seaweed planting coral growing, butterfly ranching, timber harvesting to "Strengthen the quality of Village Living", through information sharing and demonstration. funded by ICCO.
		Restorative Justice Project. Funded by AusAID on police training and peace – is a fee for service program.
		Radio/Theatre Program. Bringing current events to the village community so they can come to grips with all the important facts before making important decisions on behalf of their Community.
